

Agamben and the Image

2 December 2008, 6 – 8pm, Ben Pimlott Lecture Theatre

Professor John Lechte (Macquaire University) in discussion with:
James Martin, Ben Noys and Alberto Toscano
Unit for Global Justice and Research Unit in Politics and Ethics,
Goldsmiths, University of London

What is the role and place of the image in Agamben's work? How does the image link Agamben's so-called literary and political writings? What is the politics of the image in Agamben's theory?

Admission free – all are welcome.

Enquiries to: Trudi Kent, Department of Sociology, ext. 7707, t.kent@gold.ac.uk

Poster: www.johnreardon.info

Goldsmiths
UNIVERSITY OF LONDON