

Image source: Women's Food and Farming Union, Staffordshire Branch, 2005
<http://www.wfu.org.uk/brchnew/staff.htm>

THE PHYSIQUE OF THE PUBLIC

Friday June 6, 2008
Room 137a, Richard Hoggart Building
Goldsmiths, University of London

Speakers

Jane Bennett | Political Science, Johns Hopkins University
Matthew Fuller | Cultural Studies, Goldsmiths
Javier Lezaun | James Martin Institute, Oxford University
David Oswell | Sociology, Goldsmiths
Albena Yaneva | Architecture, University of Manchester
Claire Waterton | Sociology, Lancaster University
Sarah Whatmore | Geography, Oxford University
Brian Wynne | Sociology, Lancaster University

Discussants

Andrew Barry | Geography, Oxford University
Gail Davies | Geography, UCL
Kate Nash | Sociology, Goldsmiths

This workshop convenes researchers and theorists who bring an interest in citizenship and publicity to the study of material and physical practices.

Organised by: CSISP, Department of Sociology, Goldsmiths & The Space of Democracy/Democracy of Space Research Network

All welcome, please contact Natalie Warner at csisp@gold.ac.uk to reserve a place. Suggested donation: £8, £4 concessions.

Further details:

<http://www.goldsmiths.ac.uk/csisp/source/events.html#pop>