

Goldsmiths Leverhulme Media Research Centre:
Spaces, Connections, Control,
Inaugural Symposium

Media, Diversity and Cosmopolitanism in Europe

Saturday 28 November 2009, 9:30 – 17:30
Ian Gulland Lecture Theatre
Goldsmiths, University of London

Programme:

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 9:30 – 10:00 | Registration |
| 10:00 – 10:20 | Opening
James Curran (Goldsmiths Leverhulme Media Research Centre)
Kevin Robins (Goldsmiths Leverhulme Media Research Centre) |
| 10:20 – 11:50 | Cosmopolitanism and diversity in Europe
Chair: Monika Metykova (Goldsmiths)
Adrian Favell (Aarhus University): The Cosmopolitan and the Provincial: London as a Hub of Intra-EU Mobility
Katharine Sarikakis (University of Leeds): The Citizen-at-Large: Cultural and Communication Rights in the European Context
Ksenija Vidmar Horvat (University of Ljubljana): Is There a Cosmopolitan Patriotism? Spaces of Belonging and Citizenship in a Post-national Era |
| 11:50 – 12:00 | Refreshments |
| 12:00 – 13:00 | Plenary
Zygmunt Bauman: From Assimilation to...? A Brief History of European Ambitions and Their Frustrations |

- 13:00 – 14:00 Lunch
- 14:00 – 15:50 Media and diversity
Chair: Kevin Robins (Goldsmiths)
Connie Christiansen (Roskilde University): Homepages of Hometowns: Forging the Transnational Village, Forging
Transnational Citizenship?
Aniko Imre (University of Southern California): Paradoxes of Minority Stardom in Post-Wall Europe
Monika Metykova (Goldsmiths): European Catholic Media: A
Challenge to Media Policy?
Isabelle Rigoni (Université de Poitiers): Muslims in the European Mediascape
- 15:50 – 16:10 Refreshments
- 16:10 – 17:10 Contemporary Roma Art
Asu Aksoy (Goldsmiths) in conversation with Timea
Junghaus (Arts and Culture Programme, Open Society Institute)
- 17:10 - 17: 30 Closing remarks
- 17:30 Wine reception