Overview of programme changes

Goldsmiths has needed to make changes to the way in which its programmes will be taught in 2021-22 in response to the ongoing global Covid-19 pandemic. From the Autumn term 2021 teaching will be delivered through in-person sessions, with principally teacher-focussed sessions being pre-recorded and made available to you online.

In some instances changes have also been made to assessment formats where necessary.

This addenda summarises approved changes that will be in place for 2021-22. Further programme information is provided in the published programme specification.

* This module requires students to access campus archives and libraries. It is expected that these will all reopen given the government easing most restrictions on 19 July 2021. However, it is possible that some restrictions may remain in place. The Department of History will direct students to archives and libraries that are open and accessible. If the situation changes and students are unable to access the facilities they need, there may need to be an extension to the assessment deadline on this module. Any necessary changes to the assessment deadlines will be communicated to students at the appropriate time.
