Overview of programme changes

Goldsmiths has needed to make changes to the way in which its programmes will be taught in 2021-22 in response to the ongoing global Covid-19 pandemic. From the Autumn term 2021 teaching will be delivered through in-person sessions, with principally teacher-focussed sessions being pre-recorded and made available to you online.

In some instances changes have also been made to assessment formats where necessary.

This addenda summarises approved changes that will be in place for 2021-22. Further programme information is provided in the published programme specification.

How you will learn and how you will be assessed

Academic year of study 1 for 2021-22 only

Module Title	Teaching Delivery	Assessment
Studies in General Professional Issues and Research in Education	This module will be taught through lectures and seminars and will require students to complete pre-session and follow up reading to support their practice. The module will include 15 hours of pre-recorded teaching activities supplemented by 15 hours of seminars delivered in-person on-campus. In addition, this module includes 100 hours of independent study and 170 hours of practical experience, applying learning on school placement.	No change
Curriculum Studies	This module consists of 30 seminar or tutorial hours delivered face-to-face on-campus*, 100 hours of independent study and 170 practical experience hours.  * An alternative delivery mode for the 30 hours of seminars/tutorials may be needed if the SCITT partner school requires this.	No change
School Experience	This module will be delivered through face-to-face seminar sessions which will be supplemented by approximately 10 hours of asynchronous online learning. In addition, the module will include 120 days on school placement.  * An alternative delivery mode for the face-to-face seminar sessions may be needed if the SCITT partner school / DfE requires this.	No change
