Department of Anthropology Seminar Series

Spring Term 2010

Wednesdays 4.00-6.00pm : Dept. of Anthropology, Room G8

13th January
Eliza Darling (Goldsmiths)
Murder Tonight in the Trailer Park: Violence and Nostalgia in Disposable America

20th January
Anselma Gallinat (Newcastle University)
Democratising memory discourses, plain nostalgia or what? Turning the East German past into a newspaper story

27th January
Elena Gonzalez (Goldsmiths)
Counternarrative: time and experience in FTM (female to male) transition

3rd February
Veronica Barassi (Goldsmiths)
Networks, Connections and Technologies: Ethnographic Reflections on the New Spaces of Political Movements

10th February
Hans Steinmuller (Max Planck Institute)
The State of Irony in Rural China

17th February - No Seminar

24th February
Rebecca Prentice (Goldsmiths)
"Kidnapping Go Build Back We Economy": Discourses of Crime in Neoliberal Trinidad

3rd March
German Friere (Goldsmiths)
Indigenous market strategies in context: agricultural change in the Venezuelan frontier

10th March
Deborah James (LSE)
Making money from nothing: money lending, debt and popular economies in South Africa

17th March
Julie Cruikshank (University of British Columbia/University of Aberdeen)
Do Glaciers Listen? Melting Glaciers and Emerging Histories

24th March
Mark Lamont (Goldsmiths)
Accidents have no cure: road deaths and material witnessing in East Africa