

Southern Africa: History, Culture and Society Seminar Series
Centre for African Studies, University of London

Beyond the “post”: Theorising South Africa now

Friday 27 April 2012

SPEAKERS:

Jeremy Seekings (University of Cape Town and Yale University): Neo-liberalism, social democracy and the persistence of poverty in post-apartheid South Africa

Tmothy Gibbs (University of Cambridge): Rural South Africa after the collapse of the labour migration system

Jenny Robinson (University College London): Johannesburg in a World of Cities: traces of elsewhere in the making of urban policies

Owen Crankshaw (University of Cape Town): Theorising Racial Inequality in Post-apartheid South Africa

DISCUSSANT:

Jonny Steinberg (Oxford)

1.00 p.m. – 5.00 p.m.

Birkbeck College

252 Main Building

Malet Street WC1E 7HX

<http://www.bbk.ac.uk/maps/centrallondon.pdf>

Workshop convened by Jenny Robinson and Hilary Sapire for the 'Southern Africa: History Culture and Society Seminar Series) Seminar organisers: Wayne Dooling (wd2@soas.ac.uk); Hilary Sapire (h.sapire@bbk.ac.uk); Rebekah Lee (r.lee@gold.ac.uk)