

CITIES IN SOUTHERN AFRICA: MIGRANTS AND URBAN AGENTS

26 February 2010

1.00 p.m. – 5.00 p.m.

Room 204, Clore Management Centre

Birkbeck College

University of London

Speakers:

BUSANI MPOFU (University of Edinburgh)

The Urban Poor and the 'Rebuilding' Programme in Bulawayo, Zimbabwe, 2005-7

REBEKAH LEE (Goldsmiths College, University of London)

Death 'On the Move': Funerals, Entrepreneurs and the Rural-Urban Nexus in South Africa

PROFESSOR PAUL JENKINS (Herriot-Watt University and Edinburgh School of Architecture and Landscape Architecture)

Changing Attitudes to Land in the Expanding Urban Areas of Xilunguine/Lourenço Marcques/Maputo

DEBBIE POTTS (King's College, University of London)

Making a Livelihood In (and Beyond) the African City

Discussant: PROFESSOR TERENCE RANGER (University of Oxford)

For more information on this and future Southern African Seminar events, and on our new Working Papers Series, please visit: www.goldsmiths.ac.uk/southern-africa

Seminar convenors:

Wayne Dooling (SOAS), wd2@soas.ac.uk

Rebekah Lee (Goldsmiths), r.lee@gold.ac.uk

Hilary Sapire (Birkbeck), h.sapire@bbk.ac.uk