

Identities and Imaginaries in South Africa

4 December 2009
2.00 p.m. – 6.00 p.m.
Room 116, Main Building
School of Oriental and African Studies

Speakers:

IAN MCQUEEN (University of Sussex), Black Consciousness in Dialogue: Steve Biko, Richard Turner and the Durban Moment in South Africa, 1970 - 1974

RACHEL BRIGHT (University of East Anglia), Who is a 'Real' South African? The Cape Election and Chinese Indentured Labour, 1903-4

JOEL CABRITA (University of Cambridge), Everyday Literacy: How Handwriting and Printing Presses Make Power in the South African Nazareth Church

SARAH DUFF (Birkbeck College), 'Saving the Children to Save the Nation': Poverty, Whiteness and Childhood in the Cape Colony, c. 1890 – 1899

Discussant: PROFESSOR VIVIAN BICKFORD-SMITH (University of Cape Town and Institute of Historical Research)

For more information about this and future Southern African Seminar events, please visit:
www.goldsmiths.ac.uk/southern-africa

Seminar convenors:

Wayne Dooling (SOAS), wd2@soas.ac.uk
Rebekah Lee (Goldsmiths), r.lee@gold.ac.uk
Hilary Sapire (Birkbeck), h.sapire@bbk.ac.uk