Our halls of residence

Studying in a city like London is an unbeatable experience. It’s even better when you know you’re living somewhere convenient, safe and affordable.

Students in our halls of residence benefit from:

- A great location – most of our halls are within walking distance of the campus, and the remainder are less than 30 minutes away.
- Having all electricity, water and heating bills included, as well as basic possessions insurance.
- Wi-Fi access.
- Residence Experience Coordinators who organise student-led social activities to help you get to know people when you arrive and during your studies.

We have a range of options, with halls priced very competently in comparison to other local London universities.

Inside you’ll find details of the accommodation and rent costs for 2021 entry. You can explore lots more – including image galleries and virtual tours – on our website.

Other housing options

Of course, living in halls is only one option for accommodation. There is a range of alternative housing available – whether you decide to make use of it straight away, or in later years. And the good news is that the areas around Goldsmiths are on the more affordable scale of London housing, with many rental opportunities available.

As a Goldsmiths student, you’ll have access to the experts at University of London Housing Services (ULHS), who assist and support students looking for and living in private accommodation. Visit housing.lon.ac.uk to find out more.

You can also book accommodation at Raymont Hall, managed by Campus Living Villages (CLV). There are different room types, ranging from £186.87 to £223.06 per week for a single en suite room, or £320.75 for a large studio. Visit campuslivingvillages.co.uk to book directly with CLV.
