Our halls of residence

Home, halls or private housing?

Studying in an exciting city like London is a fantastic experience. It's even better when you know you're living somewhere safe, comfortable and good value.

We have a range of affordable options, and our halls are priced very competitively in comparison to other local London universities.

As a Goldsmiths student, you'll also have access to the experts at University of London Housing Services (ULHS), who assist and support students looking for and living in private accommodation.

Jet and friendly campus community

Students in our halls benefit from:

• Having all utility bills included (except TV licence)
• Basic contents insurance included
• Wifi

You’ll find all of the accommodation we currently offer, and the rent costs for 2020 entry. You can see lots more, including photos of each of the halls of residence, on our website.

Pre-payment/deposit: a £145 advance payment must be paid upon acceptance of your accommodation offer and it will be deducted from your first rent instalment (for students allocated to the Goldsmiths Student Village a £200 deposit is due, but no £145 pre-payment is required). The information in this document has been supplied to Goldsmiths, University of London in good faith and is to be used for guidance. Although the College has been assured the information is correct at the time of publication, the College cannot guarantee the currency of the information after publication.

Please check our website and portal for the most up-to-date information and refer to the details on your offer of accommodation before you commit to accepting the room.

GOLDSMITHS STUDENT VILLAGE MANAGED BY CAMPUS LIVING VILLAGES

Dean House:

Goldsmiths Student Village, 3 Peckham Rd, London SE14 6AG

Goldsmiths, University of London, in common with other universities, is a multi-academic site. As a result, the distance from one hall to another may vary. Many halls are on the same campus as the Goldsmiths student village, which is located within the main Goldsmiths Studen Village.
