

Progression agreement between OCN London Access to HE Diploma courses and Goldsmiths, University of London undergraduate programmes

Introduction

Goldsmiths is committed to promoting access and diversity and this is clearly reflected in the diversity of our student population. We have a strong tradition of recruiting mature students with 27.9% of our undergraduate students aged over 21 upon entry.

OCN is proud of its history of supporting education and training providers for over 30 years. OCN promotes widening participation, social inclusion, employer engagement and lifetime learning for all.

Goldsmiths has always valued the Access to HE Diploma as an academically strong qualification giving students a solid foundation for higher education study.

Goldsmiths are therefore delighted to present this agreement with OCN who validate Access to HE Diplomas throughout Greater London.

Admissions agreement details

This Admissions agreement confers admissions benefits upon all learners studying Access to HE Diplomas accredited by OCN. Depending upon the programme, these benefits include receiving a guaranteed interview, a guaranteed offer and/or an offer set below our typical offer level for relevant programmes. You can find the typical offer on the relevant programme page. Please continue reading for details of the agreement broken down by programme.

The typical Goldsmiths Access to HE Diploma offer is Pass with 45 Level 3 credits including 30 Distinctions with the remaining awarded at Merit/Pass. One grade lower could be expressed as Pass with 45 Level 3 credits including 21 Distinctions, 12 Merits and the remaining awarded at Merit/Pass in subject-specific modules.

If you have already completed your Diploma, we would still be happy to consider your application. Please contact the Admissions team (admissions@gold.ac.uk) for further information.

Further Support for students and colleges

The Goldsmiths Widening Participation team will be available to OCN partner Colleges to provide information, advice, and guidance on the programmes offered at Goldsmiths, and this Progression Agreement. Our experienced and engaging team deliver talks and workshops on a range of subjects relating to higher education. These can be delivered within your college, or as part of a bespoke visit to our campus.

Our range of talks and workshops includes:

- Choosing a university
- Choosing a course
- Student finance and budgeting
- The UCAS application process
- Personal statement talks and surgeries
- Studying at Goldsmiths
- Student life
- Studying in London

Workshops usually last between 45 minutes and an hour, but we are happy to combine, condense or extend sessions depending on what works for you. We are also happy to receive requests for bespoke activity – as a partner institution, we will work with you to agree and select the best available combination of activities to meet your learners' requirements.
