GOLDSMITHS
This is a day for you: a chance to have a look around our single-site campus and get a feel for what makes Goldsmiths the amazing place to study that it is. Creative, challenging, inspiring and influential, we know you’ll love studying here.
WHAT’S GOING ON?

Attend our departmental subject talks, explore our campus and find out about some of the exciting projects you can get involved with as a Goldsmiths student.

Welcome Talks | Ian Gulland Lecture Theatre
10am and 10.20am

Campus and Accommodation Tours
Richard Hoggart Building
Leaving every 15 minutes from the Refectory.

Departmental Tours
Many Departments will be running tours from their showcase areas, look out for the signs and ask about a tour.

Library Tours | Rutherford Building
Leaving every 15 minutes from the ground floor.

Departmental Showcase and Subject Talks
We want you to get a real feel for what we do here at Goldsmiths, so all of our Departments are showcasing their subjects. Whether it be hands-on, visual, or interacting with a current student, you’ll get a real sense of the content of our programmes and the quality of our teaching.

Centre for Contemporary Art (CCA)
Goldsmiths Centre for Contemporary Art is London’s newest contemporary arts institution and open to everyone. Hosting world-class exhibitions by international artists, and providing a space for established and emergent practices, the institution aims to enhance Goldsmiths’ reputation for excellence and innovation in the arts. Come and have a look at the current exhibitions during your visit today.

THE FRINGE ZONE

At Goldsmiths we like to do things a little differently and the Fringe Zone is no exception. There will be food, a place to chill out, a stage with performances, including traditional Chinese dance and calligraphy, martial arts, music, as well as a giant deck chair.
If you want to find out about Erasmus+ study abroad opportunities, careers support, accommodation, help with applying to university, library services and short courses, then come and visit our helpful and friendly team in the Great Hall in the Richard Hoggart Building.
Accommodation
Ian Gulland Lecture Theatre, Whitehead Building
Find out more about Goldsmiths’ halls of residence and private accommodation in New Cross, Brockley, Shadwell and Camberwell, and the vibrant and diverse student community you’ll join if you move into university halls.

Funding and Support
Professor Stuart Hall Building, Room LG01
(Through the main entrance and down the stairs)
Covering student loans, scholarships and bursaries, this talk demystifies how you can finance your university studies and shares practical tips and advice about creating (and keeping to) a budget.

Applying to University
Richard Hoggart Building, Room 139
When do I apply? Will I be interviewed? What’s the difference between a firm and an insurance choice? Find answers to some of the most frequent questions about the timescales, terminology and the process of applying to university.

Moving to London to Study
Richard Hoggart Building, Room 140
London has been ranked the best city in the world for university students*. Staff and students will provide an insider’s guide to getting the most out of living, studying, exploring and working in the UK’s capital.

*QS Best Student Cities 2018
All our departments are showcasing their subjects throughout the day. Our academics will be on-hand and happy to tell you about current projects, their specific research and the daily activities happening in their department.

Find the subject area you’re interested in on the schedule listed on the next page. We’re holding introductory talks at the times listed, and outside these times you’re invited to view our departmental showcases, 10am-3pm. This will help you get a feel for what you might do when you’re studying here, and give you the opportunity to chat to staff and current students.
