

GOLDSMITHS
TEACHERS & ADVISERS
CONFERENCE
2016

Free event

Friday 1 July
9.30am–3.30pm

Goldsmiths, University of London invites you join us at our annual Teachers and Advisers Conference

---

From careers advisers to support staff, subject tutors to curriculum leaders, our conference will inform and inspire anyone who is involved with supporting the progression of students into higher education.

You will have the opportunity to engage with leading figures from the higher education sector and hear about the latest exciting developments here at Goldsmiths.

The conference is free to attend and includes lunch and a drinks reception.

We look forward to seeing you there.

Find out more:
study.gs/teachersconference

---

Confirmed speakers and workshop facilitators:

Mary Curnock
Cook OBE
UCAS Chief Executive

Cara Flanagan

Educational Psychologist and author of A-level textbooks

"Cara is able to unpack and interpret the requirements of a syllabus for teachers better than anyone I have met in any subject at any level."

Rick Jackman, Managing Director,
Illuminate Publishing

Dr Michael England

Higher Education Access Network

"(The HEAN workshop) was the single most useful thing I've taken part in during the 30 years of my teaching career." Mark Morley-Souter, Clacton Coastal Academy

June Eric-Udorie

Student campaigner and writer

"If you aren't already familiar with the writing of June Eric-Udorie, 17, prepare to be blown away."

The Independent

---

Send your name, school/organisation, email address and dietary requirements to advisersconference@gold.ac.uk